

Learning regardless of time and place, flexible study opportunities

Preliminary programme

International Week at Novia University of Applied Sciences 31.10-2.11.2017

MONDAY 30.10

- Arrival at Turku. Common dinner for those who want to take part
- Possibility for teachers who like to give lectures

TUESDAY 31.10

- Welcome and short presentation of Novia
- Presentation of the participants
- The Mysterious Hill rooms – digital learning presented by two Business Administration teachers
Exercise: Using the Hill method to plan the next international week together with two teachers in charge of international relations at Campus Raseborg
- Lunch
- Alternative programme:
 - » attending training sessions with Business Administration students and coaches using the Teamlearning method
 - » visiting the accountancy or marketing labs where students work with projects in cooperation with companies and associations
 - » meeting with Business Administration teachers or non-teaching staff working with similar tasks as the participant
- Campus tour
- Sightseeing by foot in Turku
- Common dinner for those who want to take part

WEDNESDAY 1.11

- Workshop on projects with the student team Comitiva (Tourism Management)
- Lecture about Interprofessional student teams (Nursing and Medicine) at Turunmaa hospital
- Lunch
- Short presentations of the home institutions of the participants and own experience (if any) of flexible study opportunities
- Alternative programme:
 - » attending training sessions with Tourism Management students and coaches using the Teamlearning method
 - » visiting the Tourism lab where students carry out projects together with working life
 - » study visit to Turunmaa hospital (Nursing teachers)
 - » visiting the Nursing lab
 - » meeting with Tourism or Nursing teachers or non-teaching staff working with similar tasks as the participant
- Common dinner for all participants (free of charge)

THURSDAY 2.11

- Workshop on Project-based inter-professional learning (Social Services)
- Short presentations of the home institutions of the participants and own experience (if any) of flexible study opportunities
- Alternative programme:
 - » taking part in teaching in Social services
 - » visiting the social clinic
 - » meeting with Social services teachers or non-teaching staff working with similar tasks as the participant
- Lunch (free of charge)
- Lecture on pedagogics used in simulation (Maritime Management)
- Navigating big vessels in the simulator at the Maritime department
- Feedback session
- Certificates of Attendance

FRIDAY 3.11

- Possibility for teachers who like to give lectures.